THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE B. SUDERSHAN REDDY

AND

THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S. ANANDA REDDY

WRIT APPEAL NO. 2214 OF 2005

JUDGMENT: (per Sri B. Sudershan Reddy, J)

The order under appeal, in our considered opinion, does not suffer from any legal or factual infirmities requiring interference in exercise of our letters patent jurisdiction. Admittedly, the appellant herein has no right to insist and compel the Government to allot graded or non-graded red sanders wood, as prayed for. In the absence of infringement of any statutory right, no writ of Mandamus as prayed for lies. The view taken by the learned single Judge that the appellant cannot be said to have any enforceable right requiring this Court to issue any Mandamus as prayed for, in our considered opinion, is absolutely correct. The order does not require any modification.

The Writ Appeal fails and shall accordingly stand dismissed.
